

Africa in Bremen! – Call for contributors

On the 16th of September 2011, the first African exhibition in North Germany with the theme "AFRICA IN BREMEN" will be organized in Bremen during the famous HanseLife trade fair.

The Africa in Bremen Exhibition is organised by a project team from the African community in Bremen and the Deutsche Gesellschaft für Internationale Zusammenarbeit (GIZ) GmbH.

The goals of the Exhibition are:

- to demonstrate the potentials of Africans present in the community and the vital role they play and can play in developments in a cosmopolitan city like Bremen.
- to provide a networking forum with information, contacts and special offers for Bremen citizens, tourists, companies, associations and educational institutions
- to arouse public interest for the African diaspora and for the African continent beyond common stereotypes

Therefore we are seeking your contribution!

We are looking for people in the age between 16 and 25 who would like to take part in our African style fashion show – You are welcome to apply. Our professional model Toyin will train the group and finally choose the 10 best models for the catwalk on September 16.
